

On 19 July 1965, Admiral Raborn reported to the PFIAB that DD/S&T's organizational structure continued to be oriented toward providing the most effective mechanism for developing ~~the~~ technical ~~capabilities~~ collection capabilities as recommended by the Board in its 8 March 1963 memorandum. He suggested that, since the DD/S&T was now ~~well past~~ ~~its organization~~ producing results on a continuing basis, it might be appropriate to discontinue special reports and in future cover activities in the S&T field in the annual CIA report to the Board.
